Act	The Planning and Development Act, 1983.
Building	Any structure constructed or placed on, in or over land but does not include a public highway.
Building Principal	A building in which the main or primary use of the lot is conducted.
Council	The Council of the Village of Caronport.
Development	The carrying out of any building, engineering, mining or other operations in, on, or over land or the making of any material change in the use or intensity of the use of any building or land.
Development Permit	A document authorizing a development issued pursuant to this bylaw, but does not include a building permit.
Discretionary Use	A use of land or a building that may be permitted in a district only at the discretion of the Council and which may be subject to specific development standards.
Dwelling	A building or part of a building that may be used as a permanent residence excluding a mobile home, but including a prefabricated home.
Dwelling Unit	One or more rooms that may be used as a residence each unit having separate sleeping, cooking and toilet facilities.

Dwelling, Multiple	A building containing three or more dwelling units.
Dwelling, Duplex	A building divided horizontally into two dwelling units.
Dwelling, Semi-detached	A building divided vertically into two dwelling units by a common wall extending from the base of the foundation to the roof line.
Dwelling, Single Detached	A building containing only one dwelling unit.
Home Occupation	An occupation, trade, profession or craft conducted for gain in a dwelling unit or a conforming accessory structure by the resident or residents and which is incidental and secondary to the residence.
Hotel	A building or structure or part of a building or structure in which sleeping accommodation with or without meals is provided for tourists or travellers, and where a guest register or record is kept.
Lot	An area of land with fixed boundaries which is of record in the Land Titles Office by Certificate of Title.
Lot Line, Front	A line separating the lot from the street; for a corner lot, the shorter line abutting a street.
Lot Line, Rear	The lot line at the rear of the lot and opposite the front lot line.
Lot Line, Side	The lot line other than a front or rear lot line.
Minister	The member of the Executive Council to whom for the time being is assigned the administration of the Act.
Mobile Home	A trailer coach that may be used as dwelling all the year round; has water faucets and shower or other bathing facilities that may be connected to a water distribution system; and has facilities for washing and water closet or other similar facility that may be connected to a sewage system.
Mobile Home Court	A lot or parcel of land under single management for the placement of two or more mobile homes.
Mobile Home Site	An area within a mobile home court intended for the placement of a mobile home.
Motel	A hotel for temporary use by automobile tourists or travellers.
Parking Lot	Open space, other than a street, used for temporary parking of more than four automobiles and available for public use, or as accommodation for clients, employees or customers.

PART III - ADMINISTRATION1. Development Officer

The Village Administrator shall be the Development Officer responsible for the administration of this Bylaw.

2. Development Permit

- A. Except where a particular development is specifically exempted by Part 3, Section 5 no person shall undertake a development or commence a use without a development permit first being obtained.
- B. A Development Permit cannot be issued in contravention of any provisions of this Bylaw.

3. Development Permit Procedure

- A. An application for a development permit shall be made in writing to the Development Officer in any form prescribed by Council.
- B. Where an application for a development permit is made for a permitted use, the development officer shall issue a permit where the development is in conformity with this Bylaw.
- C. Where an application for a development permit is made for a discretionary use, the development officer shall advise the Council as soon as practicable.
- D. As soon as practicable after Council is advised that an application has been made for a development permit for a discretionary use, Council shall consider the application. Prior to making a decision on a discretionary use application Council shall notify each owner of property within a 75 metre radius (246 feet) of the proposed development, that it is considering an application for a discretionary use, and may refer the application to whichever government agencies or interested groups Council may consider appropriate.
- E. Upon approval of a discretionary use application by resolution of Council the development officer shall issue a development permit subject to any development standards prescribed by Council based on the guidelines for such standards contained in Part IV, Section 12 of this Bylaw.
- F. Where a development permit application includes a building plan or lot diagram and the Council or the development officer issues a permit in conformity with this Bylaw, a copy of that plan or diagram shall be attached to and form part of the permit. Where the plan or diagram does not conform to the regulations of the Bylaw, the applicant shall be notified of the bylaw requirements. If the applicant agrees in writing to alter the application to conform to the bylaw, a permit shall be issued. If the applicant does not agree, the permit shall be refused.

- G. Every decision shall be in writing and a copy sent to the applicant.
- H. A development permit is valid for a period of twelve months.
- I. Where in the opinion of the development officer determines that a development permit is being carried out in contravention of any condition of a development permit or any provision of this Bylaw, the development officer shall suspend the development permit and notify the permit holder that the permit is no longer in force.
- J. Where the Council is satisfied that a development, the permit for which has been suspended, will be carried out in conformity with the conditions of the permit and the requirements of this Bylaw the Council may reinstate the development permit and notify the permit holder that the permit is valid and in force.

4. Referral to Saskatchewan Health

The Development Officer shall forward a copy of all approved development permit applications involving installation of water and sanitary services to the local office of Saskatchewan Health.
